Management's discussion of fund performance

The fund's Class C shares gained 4.86% for the year ended September 30, 2024. That result compares with a 5.53% gain for the USTREAS T-Bill Auction Ave 3 Mon. For information on returns for additional periods, including the fund lifetime, please refer to capitalgroup.com/mutual-fund-returns-C.

What factors influenced results

U.S. bond markets remained strong during the fund's fiscal year, most of which was spent in anticipation of a rate cut from the U.S. Federal Reserve that came at the tail end of the period. Commercial paper issuance remained strong.

As can be expected, the bulk of the fund's holdings are in commercial paper and other short-term instruments. Due to the high rate environment over the course of the fund's fiscal year, yields remained steady for much of the time. The fund also had a small position in short-term U.S. Treasury securities.

How a hypothetical $10,000 investment has grown

Figures assume reinvestment of dividends and capital gains.
