

Figures shown are past results for Class M shares and are not predictive of results in future periods. Current and future results may be lower or higher than those shown. Prices and returns will vary, so investors may lose money. Investing for short periods makes losses more likely. Returns shown at net asset value (NAV) have all distributions reinvested. Investors should carefully consider investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses. This and other important information is contained in the fund prospectuses and summary prospectuses, which can be obtained from a financial professional and should be read carefully before investing.

Investing in developing markets may be subject to additional risks, such as significant currency and price fluctuations, political instability, differing securities regulations and periods of illiquidity, which are detailed in the fund's prospectus. Investments in developing markets have been more volatile than investments in developed markets, reflecting the greater uncertainties of investing in less established economies. Individuals investing in developing markets should have a long-term perspective and be able to tolerate potentially sharp declines in the value of their investments.

Class M is the new share class name of the original single share class of the Fund. Class M shares may not be purchased or acquired except by shareholders with existing investments in Class M shares as of September 1, 2017. Investment results assume all distributions are reinvested and reflect applicable fees and expenses. The investment adviser is currently reimbursing a portion of other expenses. Net expense ratios reflect the reimbursement, without which they would have been higher. The reimbursement will be in effect through at least September 1, 2021. The adviser may elect at its discretion to extend, modify or terminate the reimbursement at that time. Please see the fund's most recent prospectus for details.

Market indexes are unmanaged and, therefore, have no expenses. Investors cannot invest directly in an index. There have been periods when the fund has lagged the index. When applicable, investment results reflect fee waivers and/or expense reimbursements, without which results would have been lower. MSCI Emerging Markets IMI reflects the S&P/IFC Global Composite Index with gross dividends reinvested from May 31, 1986 to December 31, 1987, MSCI Emerging Markets Index with gross dividends reinvested to December 31, 2000, MSCI Emerging Markets Index with net dividends reinvested to November 30, 2007 and MSCI Emerging Markets Investable Market Index with net dividends reinvested thereafter.
